

Prayer of the Holy Dance – Trinity

holy dance draw me in not so that I may know you define you
confine you
but that I may be surrounded
surrendered
free

unleash from the inside your wild and trusting child hands held
high for swinging
laughter
let loose and ringing

break in through shields of fear, creator, come by here
let love the sonnet be
and peace the melody,
rewrite, refashion me
to spin within the three

gift of presence, breath, dance me until death
play, play the music long, till I become the song
that breaks the night
with love's first light and sings your whole day long,

that I may be
surrounded,
surrendered,
free
