Vs 1 You in all our worries, you offer peace, you of the ages
In this world where injustice reigns, you are in the midst of pain
You are the life.
We long for your justice, wait for the day all will be mended
In this world you're the cry of rage, the silence of the unmarked grave
You are the right.

Ch You're the start, the voice inside the heart
Calling us to take the risk of life
You've been there, from lonely to despair
In our tears for loss and love
All will finish well

Vs 2 You break into history blessing the poor, you of the powerless
In this world where the leaders lie, you're the truth that will surprise
You are the love
We downcast and dubious, throw out our nets, already doubting
In this world we are lost alone. You're the word that brings us home
You are the north

Ch 2 You're the start, the voice inside the heart
Calling us to take the risk of life
You're the name that sets us free from shame
In our tears for loss and love all will finish well one day

I added these words to a tune I wrote many years ago. I try to express how I see an overwhelmingly large God – personally involved in our world. 'All will finish well' is from Dame or St. Julian of Norwich who wrote '...all shall be well, and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well.'
