Ch Part of a family, interconnected, this is community
Welcoming strangers, visiting neighbours, this gives us dignity

Vs 1 Care for the earth and sea, we need to keep them free
So we care for the earth and sea.
Care for the ones we meet, love is the face we see
When we care for the ones we meet.

Ch Part of a family, interconnected, this is community
Welcoming strangers, visiting neighbours, this gives us dignity

Vs 2 Sharing our joy and pain, praying and keeping faith
By sharing our joy and pain
Singing a song of rights, imaging God in life, by singing a song of rights.

Ch 2 Talk to the lonely, bind up the broken, this makes community
A glass of water shared with the thirsty, this makes for dignity
This makes for dignity
This is community

I used to worship at Christ Church Kensington, a joint Anglican and Uniting congregation. Phil, Carol and I used to play music regularly and our Uniting minister, Paul Mayfield, gave us great freedom to create and select music. Paul always emphasised the dignity of small acts, the giving of water to the thirsty, the re-creation in friendship – which is community.
