- Ch* Dare to dream of new beginnings
Paths untried by faith supplied
Dare to walk and dare to follow
Bathed in light of Bethl'em's star
Led by light of Bethl'em's star
- Vs 1* Wake and breathe in scent of promise
Shake the binds of dull despair
Hear the call to generations
"God is alive!" – let all prepare
- Vs 2* Travel light, no need for baggage
Come explore the mystery
God of prophets – strong enduring
Christ child – finite frailty
- Vs 3* Dance the timeless steps of rejoicing
Harmonise with angel's choir
Celebrate God's constant presence by living infant Christ inspired
- Vs 4* Boldly step into the unseen
Knowing God will meet us there
Love unbounded throughout history
Be the road that we have shared

For me Christmas brings a montage of images and emotions: hope, promise, longing, uncertainty, fulfilment, the conundrum of God's mortality and immortality. In all of this, God is before us, preparing the way. God stretches both forward and backward throughout history. This knowledge reassures me that I can be bold in faith and action and that we can dare to dream.
