Vs 1 God is walking in the garden in the cool of day
God is walking in the garden: "Where are you?" she says
We heard you walking, we heard you coming this way
We heard you walking, we hid because we're afraid
God is walking in the garden in the cool of day

Vs 2 Jesus walking in the garden of Gethsemane
Jesus walking in the garden: "Stay awake with me"
We heard you talking, we heard you praying so deep
We heard you talking, the next thing we were asleep.
Jesus walking in the garden of Gethsemane

Vs 3 Mary walking in the garden of the cemetery
Mary walking in the garden saw the stone was free
She heard him asking, she heard him calling her name
She heard him saying "You can't keep me in the grave!"
Mary walking in the garden of the cemetery

Vs 4 God is walking in the garden throughout history
God is walking in the garden of every family
We hear you walking, we hear you coming to us
We hear you talking of love in which we can trust
We hear you laughing, we hear you when we can't see
We hear you working, we sense your humanity
God is walking in the garden throughout history

My mother gave me a love of plants and green spaces. Paul Mayfield was an ex-farm boy and one of our ministers at Kensington. He used to bring buckets of worms to church and would wax lyrical about the power of the earth. I realised that the garden is deeply embedded in biblical stories. And that God still walks there.
