

Your Abundant Life

Words & Music: Dave Brown
Arranged: D Brown & C Lees

Reflectively

♩ = 118

Gm A B^b C F

Dm⁷ Dm/C B^b

1. Come our God and vi - sit us sick we pray.
 2. Come then Je - sus ser - vant of the world.
 3. Come now Spi - rit, en - ter in our doubt.
 4. Come great li - be - ra - tor to our land.

Dm⁷ Dm/C F/A B^b

1. Lend us hope when hope - less seems the way.
 2. Lend us joy when joy - less is our serve.
 3. Flat tened hearts that can - not raise a shout.
 4. Sing the sa - cred dream - ing of the sands.

C/B^b Am A^bdim

1. Low down young and old, end the pain we hold.
 2. Heal our bro - ken wings. Soothe our suf - fe - ring.
 3. Teach us how to be, in this mo - der - ni - ty.
 4. In the de - sert place, show to us your grace.

Gm⁷ F/A C

Come to us when we're lost.

F/A B^b F G⁷ Gm A B^b C

Lead us, in - to your a - bun - dant life, your a - bun - dant life...

F | 1, 2 & 3 | 4. Gm

Your a - bun - dant life...

A B^b C F

Your a - bun - dant life.

Your Abundant Life

Dave Brown
© 2006

Vs 1 Come our God and visit us sick we pray
Lend us hope when hopeless seems the way
Low down young and old, end the pain we hold

Ch Come to us when we're lost
Lead us into your abundant life, your abundant life

Vs 2 Come then Jesus servant of the world
Lend us joy when joyless is our serve
Heal our broken wings; soothe our suffering

Vs 3 Come now Spirit, enter in our doubt
Flattened hearts that cannot raise a shout
Teach us how to be, in this modernity

Vs 4 Come great liberator to our land
Sing the sacred dreaming of the sands
In the desert place, show to us your grace

Your abundant life
Your abundant life

At Brunswick, it was Ray Gormann who talked about being Christian in our modernity with its over-abundance. We are often replete and satiated, yet John has Jesus talking about an abundant life which seems the opposite of this catalogue of consumerism. The song is an extended prayer.