

One of the best gifts you can give – a listening ear

Come and develop your

LISTENING SKILLS

A one day practical workshop with Rev Andy Calder

Monday 29 April

9.30 am to 2.30 pm

Brunswick Uniting Church

The workshop will be “hands-on” and experiential and has been primarily developed for Olive Way volunteers and staff, Olive Arts volunteers, other leaders associated with the Olive Way. Pastoral Care volunteers and other people in caring roles would also benefit and are welcome to register subject to vacancies

The workshop is free for the above people but there is a limit of 20 places

Our facilitator, Andy Calder, is a Uniting Church minister with the role of Disability Inclusion Advocate - this role includes pastoral education via Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE). He has previously been a chaplain at Prahran Mission and Epworth Richmond Hospital.

Please express your interest in this workshop to Richard Arnold (richarn50@gmail.com) or Peter Blair (peteblair75@gmail.com) who will forward you a registration form