

Rosalind Smallwood's story

Lighting a candle for worship, 6th September 2020

*Jesus bids us shine with a pure clear light
Like a little candle burning in the night
In this world of darkness so let us shine
You in your small corner and I in mine.*

My mum was the organist at our local Anglican church. She taught me this song a long time ago. Music was a big part of our lives.

One Sunday after worship I was waiting to light a taper with Ruth and Felix in front of me. I'm a keen amateur photographer, always on the look for interesting faces with good lighting. Felix was totally absorbed putting his taper into the sandbox, and the candlelight on his face was too good to miss.

With Ruth's OK, I opened my iPhone camera and snapped this.
