'Discovering Jesus in our world : surprising encounters in the Asia -Pacific'

Rowan Callick is an expert on the Asia-Pacific Region.

Born and educated in the UK, and then after working for a daily newspaper in the north of England, Rowan spent ten years in Papua New Guinea, working in publishing and for the Anglican Diocese there, before moving to Australia in 1987. He subsequently lived for ten years in China as correspondent for the Australian Financial Review and The Australian, and was Asia-Pacific editor for both papers. He continues to take a keen interest in the affairs of the region, is the author of three widely acclaimed books, and continues as a regular contributor to national newspapers.

He is a member of the advisory board of the National Foundation for Australia-China Relations. And, a committed Anglican, Rowan is an Examining Chaplain for the Archbishop in the Diocese of Melbourne.

Christ Church is on Glenlyon Road, near the corner of Sydney Road. No 19 tram, Stop 21
