Peace shall be a pathway for your feet. Psalm 85:13

Gathering, Greeting and Call to Worship

Julie

Thankyou for your presence, both in this place and on the screen. Please take your seats now as we begin. Thanks also for wearing masks as an acknowledgement of the virus. After worship you are invited to join us for coffee and morning tea in the hall behind me.

Let's begin by singing :

Song: Gather us, O God (AOV2-139)

*Gather us, O God.
Body, spirit, soul and mind.
Gather us, O God.
One in union now with you.*

Acknowledgement of Country

Julie

We acknowledge and respect
the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation, the traditional custodians of this land
since time immemorial.

We are learning that the land is not ours to own, but to look after;
and that if we listen,
we may hear in it the calling of the eternal Spirit.

Responding to this call, we commit ourselves to work for justice, reconciliation, and care of the earth.

Welcome and Introduction

Julie

Welcome to BUC, my name is Julie Perrin I will be your liturgist today and along with our minister Ian, Lucy and Meredith and Tim, Elaine and the musicians.

Today we will hear the parable of The Rich Farmer, a story told with humour and a bluntness there is no getting away from. We also meet

There are also reflections on Psalm 85 from the Worshipping with the Psalms invitation.

You will see and hear a number of visual, written and spoken contributions woven in through the service.

Our Opening Prayer, a Prayer of Adoration, comes to us in the hymn we are about to sing.

The words were written by a Canadian writer, Sylvia Dunstan, who was mentored by Miriam Therese Winter. In this hymn are the paradoxes we meet in Jesus and the parables in the psalms.

Song – Prayer of Adoration

You Who are both Lamb and Shepherd, by Sylvia Dunstan (VU210) – Tune PICARDY TIS 497

*You, who are both Lamb and Shepherd.
You, who are both prince and slave.
You, peacemaker and swordbringer
Of the way you took and gave.
You the everlasting instant;
You, whom we both scorn and crave.*

*Clothed in light upon the mountain,
Stripped of might upon the cross,
Shining in eternal glory,
Beggar'd by a soldier's toss,
You, the everlasting instant;
You, who are both gift and cost.*

*You, who walk each day beside us,
Sit in power at God's side.
You, who preach a way that's narrow,
Have a love that reaches wide.
You, the everlasting instant;
You, who are our pilgrim guide.*

*Worthy is our earthly Jesus!
Worthy is our cosmic Christ!
Worthy your defeat and vict'ry.
Worthy still your peace and strife.
You, the everlasting instant;
You, who are our death and life.
Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.
You, who are our death and our life.*

Prayer of Lament and Confession

Image on Screen: The Lagoon by Mike Rigby

Saide Cameron's Words in response to Psalm 85:

'Mercy and truth have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.'

Why do we trample the earth?

Why are we at war?

Why do we name people as 'other'?

Why are people starving, crippled by disease and despair?

Why are we not listening to the earth?

Why do we close our ears to the wisdom of First peoples?

Why do we fail to cherish the stories of marginalised people?

Why are we not listening to Your voice in the world?

Mike's words in response to Psalm 85 (they go with his image The Lagoon):

Skies reflected and light refracted.
Glimmers revealing deep waters holding a complex ecosystem in balance, unfathomable to our minds.

Yet we have seen our past actions and are now feeling the future...
oh how will looming change transform the places (and people) we hold so dear?

Awaken and restore us oh God.
May we come to know a deep love and respect of life around us, coming to really know you more and more and find the steps we need to take"

Word of Grace

Julie

We have wronged creation, the Creator, ourselves and our fellow humans,
These sins are both heavy and huge and sometimes small and invisible to us.

But we are invited to live as a people carried by the grace of God
Jesus who preached a way that's narrow,
Has a love that reaches wide.

The author of that love invites us to live as forgiven people.

Thanks be to God.

Bible Reading – Luke 12:13-21

Meredith

Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

For these words of witness and for Christ the Word:

Thanks be to God

Story Book: The Rich Farmer

There is a secret hiding in this story. I wonder if anyone will guess it.

I heard this story a lot of times before I saw the secret.

It's something we take for granted.

I've got a clue in here that we might open up after we've heard the story

And I can hear if you have guessed the secret.

 READ ALOUD  - a Images of Pages on Screen

Does anyone know why this farmer was able to become rich?

Was it because he built bigger barns?

Was it because he planted corn and carrots and cabbages?

Was it because he worked very hard and did a lot of overtime?

No. He was rich because his soil was rich.

A gift from God, Creator and Earthmaker.

Song: God is love (a round)

*God is love and love is giving,
God gives me the life I have.
The life I have leads me to singing.
Sing that God is love.*

Psalm Response:

Ray

Three photos from Ray's Camino journey in 2016 on screen

Ray Cameron's response to Psalm 85:

'Righteousness shall go before you, and peace shall be a pathway for your feet'.

Photo 1

1. The journey before us amidst the picked harvest – I felt a deep appreciation for the richness of the area and for the people who cared for the land

Photo 2

2. The Cathedral – I arrived at Santiago de Compostela feeling a sense of arrival at the destination but not having an overwhelming sense of awe in this space. Humans have set up this holy place but it didn't evoke awe in the way that the countryside did

Photo 3

3. God's cathedral – For this this was the end. This is Finisterre, a place of quiet reflection, a place of God's majesty and beauty.

Psalm 85

Sung Refrain: Peace, Salam, Shalom

SONG: Peace, Salaam, Shalom © 2001 Pat Humphries and Sandy Opatow.
Moving Forward Music BMI www.pathumphries.com.

You have been gracious to your land, O ETERNAL ONE,
you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
You have forgiven the iniquity of your people and blotted out all their sins.
You have withdrawn all your fury and turned yourself from your wrathful indignation.

*Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom.*

Restore us then, O God our Saviour let your anger depart from us.
Will you be displeased with us forever?
will you prolong your anger from age to age?
Will you not give us life again,
that your people may rejoice in you?
Show us your mercy, O ETERNAL ONE, and grant us your salvation.

*Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom.*

I will listen, O ETERNAL ONE my God, to what you are saying,
for you are speaking peace to your faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to you.
Truly, your salvation is very near to those who fear you,
that your glory may dwell in our land.
Mercy and truth have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

*Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom.*

Truth shall spring up from the earth,
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
O ETERNAL ONE, you will indeed grant prosperity,
and our land will yield its increase.
Righteousness shall go before you,
and peace shall be a pathway for your feet.

*Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom,
Peace salaam, shalom.*

Seek ye first TIS745

1. Seek ye first the kingdom of God and God's righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you, allelu, alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, allelu, alleluia.

*2. Ask and it shall be given unto you, seek and you shall find,
Knock and it shall be opened unto you, allelu, alleluia.*

3. We shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God, allelu, alleluia.

Psalm Response: Ann, Leanne and Zia

Ian Introduce:

Our next response to psalm 85 comes from Bev, Ann, Leanne and Zia, artists from our Olive Arts Collective which meets here on Wednesday mornings. The first image you will see is Bev's "With Open Arms". Ann, Leanne and Zia have been inspired by Bev's image while responding to psalm 85. Ann will speak to us as we look at the images.

Images on screen:

1 Bev Evans – image "With Open Arms"

O GOD, you will indeed grant prosperity,
and our land will yield its increase.
Righteousness shall go before you,
and peace shall be a pathway for your feet.

In the final part of the psalm a new voice enters offering a wish for the future.
What does it mean for peace to be a pathway for my feet?
Where do I see peace as a pathway?

2 Ann Soo – first painting

I see it in the love and life that is The Olive Way. I am inspired by the image created by Bev Evans 'With Open Arms' stories from The Olive Way.

3 Ann Soo – second painting

Peace that is walked and lived through the challenges of being human in these times.

4 Leanne Salau – collage "Let's Walk to Freedom Together"

Peace that is an intentional outreaching of hands of common humanity and united in God's love.

5 Zia Tokhi – painting "Offerings of Peace and Love"

Peace in accepting hands and forming links to a wider circle of compassion and care.
Living God's Kingdom.

Psalm Response: Lesbia Centeno.

Image on screen: Winter tree, black and white fading slowly into colour.

Winter, time to dwell with a coat of light.

In winter, the cold, the rain and short days and long nights are the protagonists of the season.

In addition, in winter many of the trees are bare.

In winter, also, the landscape changes colour.

In winter it is difficult to see the sun shine.

Fortunately, in the city of Melbourne the sun has shone for everyone.

This reminds us that our path through life is to be happy, no matter if the days are grey or cold.

At any time of the year we can find a warm place that shelters us, we just have to look for it or create it.

Sending Song: Love divine all loves excelling TIS217

Julie

- 1. Love divine, all loves excelling, joy of heaven, to earth come down,
fix in us thy humble dwelling,
all thy faithful mercies crown:
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
pure unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation,
enter every trembling heart.*
 - 2. Come, almighty to deliver,
let us all thy life receive;
suddenly return, and never,
never more thy temples leave:
thee we would be always blessing,
serve thee as thy hosts above,
pray, and praise thee, without ceasing, glory in thy perfect love.*
 - 3. Finish then thy new creation, pure and spotless let us be,
let us see thy great salvation,
perfectly restored in thee:
changed from glory into glory,
till in heaven we take our place,
till we cast our crowns before thee,
lost in wonder, love and praise.*
