

Every time we worship here in this church we affirm that all people are made in the image of God, are children of God, that all sexualities, gender expressions and identities are part of God's good creation, that all are loved, welcomed and included as part of Christ's family, we are the one body of Christ in our diversity.

Brunswick Uniting Church

An outward looking Christian community in the heart of Melbourne's inner north.